STAT

[redacted] Office of Logistics, called to say that the GSA representatives who were to approach the congressional committee on the transfer of the radio transmitters stated that they normally would be in touch with Congressman Jack Brooks (D., Tex.) and his brother, who is a staff man and who have been very helpful. Mr.

STAT

[redacted] told them to deal with the people Mr. Warner had briefed and if the suggestion were made that the Brooks be brought in they would remind the ones they approached that this was a classified matter and the fewer people informed the better. If pressure came on they were to play it by ear. General Counsel said this was satisfactory.
